

Instantor® Compression Fittings

Brass should never be used in underground applications

The Instantor Range of Compression Fittings Manufactured by Sanbra Fyffe has maintained reputation for absolute quality for seventy five years.

In 1991 Sanbra Fyffe quality management system achieved its certification to ISO/EN9001/2000 and is currently certified to ISO/EN9001/2008.

Compression Fittings produced by Sanbra Fyffe comply with The European Standard EN 1254-2, the production process of Hot Brass Stamping and Casting of non-ferrous metals have been developed and refined over the decades to insure Sanbra Fyffe as market leader in Ireland.

Sanbra Fyffe's Instantor range is manufactured exclusively from top quality brass as per CW617N specification.

“Quality Without Compromise”